TOMORROW'S ACHIEVERS TODAY

Thursday 15 June 2017 – Volume 21

Quote of the Week

"It is not flesh and blood, but the heart which makes us fathers and sons."
~ Johann Schiller

From the Headmaster

MR P L McAVOY

There are bursts of noise at school at the moment... Nervous energy is responsible before 08h00 daily, relief and/or frustration later on. All in all, Northwood is a productive place right now. Writing, marking, writing, marking. I just put this sentence in the middle of my piece to see if anybody is actually reading it. Writing, marking, and so it goes on...

For those who require particular structure and guidance during exam prep, note that the Homework Centre remains operational throughout the exam block. Remember, whatever you do always give 100%. Unless you are donating blood.

It is also important to ensure that you adhere strictly to the instructions in an exam. Teachers don't appreciate people who use big words just to make themselves look perspicacious.

When you're struggling to write enough in the exam and see someone asking for more paper

At the conclusion of the winter sports season, I wish to pay tribute to the team who has made this a successful and, more importantly, an enjoyable one. We have all learnt lessons over the last few months – from winning and losing – and we will take these forward, together, to make Northwood an even better place.

"Dad, you've done a lot of great things, but you're a very old man, and old people are useless."
- Homer Simpson

This is another sentence to see if you read this far. Thank you for doing that. And Happy Father's Day to the Dads of our magnificent Squires and Knights!
