Thought for the Week

"It's not the will to win, but the will to prepare to win that makes the difference."

~ Bear Bryant

Congratulation to our Prize Winners on reaping the fruits of your hard work!

From the Headmaster

MR P VILJOEN

Dear Parents

What a wonderful journey it has been for our grade 12 boys. It was very special to say farewell to them at their annual speech day this morning.

I would like to congratulate each and every one of our prize winners, especially Adnan Bassa, our Dux learner, with an average of 93%! A wonderful achievement by a diligent and hardworking young man.

Congratulations also go to newly appointed Head Prefect of the School, Fynn Whittle and his deputies, Jeremy Martins, Sasko Ndlovu, Henk Heymans and Cairon Bigwood and our new Head Prefect of the Boarding Establishment, Sasko Ndlovu, and his deputies JP du Preez, Charles Gamhiwa and Ntokozo Makhaza, I have no doubt that they will acquit themselves exceptionally at this task.

Below, please find the address I gave to the parents and boys during the speech day this morning.

"Lately I have contemplated life, I don't know why? Maybe it is because I have finally reached the golden age of 40, or maybe it is because I have had to say goodbye to too many family or friends, or colleagues in the last year, but maybe it is because time seems to pass by so incredibly quickly these days.

And then, before you know it you sit in a school hall in Durban North as a parent, with crying eyes and you wonder if your son will be ok as he embarks on adulthood and the roller coaster ride that is life? Because life these days is much harder and more challenging than it ever was. Work is scarce, the economy is under pressure, violence is escalating and the temptations of alcohol and drugs are greater than ever.

So as a parent it is natural to be worried, and to ask yourself the question whether my boy will be ok or not?

And the good news is they will be.

So why is it that in spite of all challenges facing our boys, I am so confident that our boys will be fine? I believe the answer can be found in the following:

From the Headmaster Continued...

1. You have taught them to love God;
2. You have always been there for your child and you have equipped them with a value system that allows them to make decisions that are acceptable to you as parents;
3. They have been in a school where they have been taught the values displayed on the steps leading to their classrooms:
4. Values that have allowed our boys to complete the journey from a squire to a knight, and values that will allow them to:
 - Protect the weak
 - To fight wrong
 - To seek justice
 - To be loyal to their friends
 - To be fair to all people
 - To be true, gentle, faithful, and brave
 - To be generous
 - To honour and respect all woman
 - And to strive to do the right thing

Grade 12's, on days like these it is easy for speechmakers to fall into the trap of using a variety of clichés, so forgive me if I knowingly venture onto the well-trodden path of the cliché that is the opportunity that beckons to write your own life story.

What story are you going to write on your white board of life? Will it be a story dotted with positive contributions, good or mediocre matric results? A story that one day ends with eulogies and anecdotes of how you made a positive change in people's lives? Of how you worked hard, loved unconditionally, cared for your or wife, and treated all people with the love and caring that they deserve.

Or will your story be a simple one, where you lived, but did not really do anything – The late Spanish golfer, Severiano Ballesteros was correct when he said- all men die, but not all men live!

Within each one of you there is the potential to write an unbelievable, exciting and successful story! A best seller and a story that starts when you pick up your pens and pencils and start writing your final exams.

Many of you are probably scared and nervous- but if you prepare well, if you are determined to be successful, and trust your ability and you pray constantly – you have nothing to fear.

So as you move into the world filled with challenges and life that promises happiness and heartache in abundance let me give you some pointers on how to survive.

1. Build your foundations on your God;
2. Each day, dare yourself to be outstanding;
3. Rather be an hour early, rather than a minute late;
4. I know you're tough- but never forget to be kind to people;
5. Never be scared to do the right thing and to be proud of the values you carry with you and that your parents have taught you;
6. Honour your farther and your mother;
7. Henry Ford said – whether you believe you can or you can't, you will be right. I say to you this morning, always say you can
8. Always keep standing- no matter what happens always keep standing.

To the parents, thank you for believing in Northwood and thank you for being part of the school's family. To all of my staff who has worked so incredibly hard over five years to prepare these boys for the final exams. Thank you for your amazing care, diligence and persistence.

I want to close with a scripture and a blessing - "When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; And through the rivers, they will not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, nor will the flame burn you.

And the blessing...

May you always have...

Walls for the winds

A roof for the rain

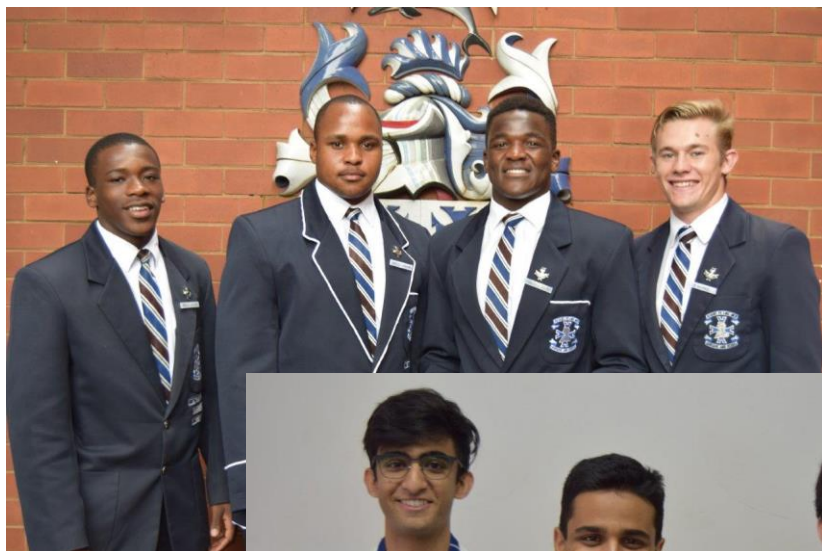

Tea beside the fire

Laughter to cheer you

Those you love near you

And all your heart might desire

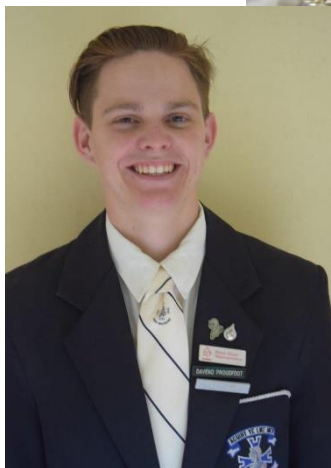

Thank you and good luck, men of Northwood.

Sport & Culture

From the head of Extramurals

Mr G. le Roux gleroux@nwood.co.za

A warm welcome back to all our boys and parents. I hope the rest was long enough to recover somewhat in preparation for a busy term.

Well done to all our sports teams that were on tour at festivals or tournaments around the country. There were some really encouraging results throughout our tours. I must thank the following staff for their commitment and dedication throughout the holidays to our boys on tour. Mr van Wyk and Mr Minnie with our 1st Cricket, Mr Rademeyer and Mr Nkomo with our 1st Soccer boys, Mr Richter with numerous water polo tours throughout the holiday and lastly Mr Gow for running a very successful u14 Shaun Pollock Festival hosted at Northwood.

All the best of luck to our Water Polo boys this weekend who will be competing in the Top 10 Water Polo Tournament at Kings Park.

Just a reminder to parents to please keep our boys committed to their extra murals this term. Please plan accordingly and ensure there is an adequate balance between sport and preparations for exams that are looming. One particular weekend is the Grey College tour with our Cricket and Water Polo Teams. The tour will be two nights over the 26 and 27 October with boys returning on 28 October. Further details will follow in a formal letter as soon as all details have been confirmed from Grey. Please budget in the region of R600 for this tour. It is a first for us for summer sports and something we are extremely excited about.

All the best to our boys during this term.

For all extra mural details about fixtures, notices, practice times and transport arrangements please visit www.northwoodschooolsport.com. Remember to create a shortcut on your home screen of your mobile device for a very user-friendly version of the site.
