From the Headmaster's Desk

Dear Parents

I am sure many of you would have watched the Supersport documentary, Chasing the Sun, a documentary that chronicles the Springbok team's journey to becoming Rugby World Cup Champions in 2019.

Like you, I was absolutely blown away by the culture of trust, support, care and honesty that existed among the team, but also about how wonderfully diverse the people of our great country are. None of these men or women seemed entitled, arrogant or selfish – they were simply a group of men and women who believed and trusted that if they got to know each other, worked together and sacrificed hours and hours of their lives to a common goal they could achieve anything.

For me the documentary meant more than any leadership course or conference I have ever been on. The lessons just never seemed to stop throughout the five episodes. Lessons, that are easily implemented in our school and culture and as such those men and women will also have an impact on our school.

The documentary also showcases how special our country can really be – if we stand together, love, care and respect each other, we will be absolutely unstoppable as a nation. South Africans are at their very core – tough and resilient and as such well-equipped to face all that comes our way. May we all work a little harder on the values of respect and care in the coming weeks – it will make us a better and stronger community.

As our grade 12 boys start their final NSC exams today, I ask that you continue to keep them in your thoughts and prayers. Please pray for them to be successful, healthy and blessed throughout the next five weeks.

Thank you again for your continued support of our school and staff.

Have a blessed weekend.

Thought for the Week

"When I was a boy and I would see scary things in the news, my mother would say to me, "look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping." To this day, especially in times of "disaster," I remember my mother's words and I am always comforted by realising that there are still so many helpers—so many caring people in this world."

~ Mr Rogers

They shall not grow old
As we that are left grow old
Age shall not weary them
Nor the years condemn them
At the going down of the sun
And in the morning
We shall remember them.
