From the Headmaster's Desk

Dear Parents

The school governing body elections are an extremely important date on the annual school calendar. In short, the "SGB" allows for key stakeholders, i.e. parents, staff and boys, an opportunity to be part of the governance process within the public school system. The voice of these stakeholders is extremely important and allows for the school management team to operate with a shared vision, transparency and support.

The expertise that elected parents bring to the table is also invaluable when it comes to the management, implementation and completion of various projects and activities relating to the school.

I have been most fortunate to have had the support of an outgoing SGB who were excellent in every sense and, as such, I would like to thank them for their tireless service in making our school a better place for all.

During the course of this week we concluded the process of electing the parent representatives who will govern the school during the course of the next three years. I can confirm that the following parents were elected:

We are indeed fortunate to have committed and multi-skilled parents who are happy to serve the school in this governance role. And I certainly look forward to working with all involved.

Quote of the Week

"We are what we repeatedly do; excellence, then, is not an act but a habit."
