From the Headmaster's Desk

Dear Parents

Last week we honored our academic achievers for the first term. Eli Govender, who achieved the top position in grade 12, addressed the boys in the most amazing way, below is the message he gave our boys.

"Good morning to Mr. Viljoen, staff, parents and my fellow peers. Success in the classroom does not come easy, so I would like to congratulate you. Being invited to this ceremony is an indication of your hard work and determination. You have earned a place here. Success is not exclusive to an individual, it is the invaluable influence and contribution of our teachers, parents and friends. They too are worthy of the accolades. And, as with all triumph within our life, we must always give honor to God.

While today is a day of celebration, we cannot forget that this is only the beginning. The early stages of a year-long odyssey to achieve our goals. And if we continue our relentless pursuit of academic victory, I have no doubt that each and every one of us will get those desired results.

There are some of us, especially our United fans, who are not satisfied with their results! Those who hunger to reach their full potential. And to those students, I offer one piece of advice: never settle. Push yourself, beyond any perceived limits you may think you have, and patiently endure. The rewards you will reap overtime will be exhilarating.

There are some of us who didn't anticipate breaking the merit barrier, and I've seen some of those math averages, you know who you are! Reflect. That feeling of exuberance, being rewarded for perseverance in the classroom. Doesn't it feel good? Challenge yourself. Be desperate for that feeling. Make that your motivation. Put your heart and soul into study, and trust me, it will be worth it when it's over.

Before I conclude, a brief message to my fellow matrics. Grade 12 can be summarized into 2 words: perpetual exhaustion. Personally, no matter how little work I do, no matter how much sleep I get, I am always tired. However, brothers, this is it. The final push. Our last chance to make history. Let us show the world that the class, the Knights of 2021 will be unparalleled for many years to come.

I will leave you with this thought: if people doubt how far you can go, go further until you cannot hear them anymore."

CONTROL TESTS / REINFORCEMENT LESSONS

The Term 2 Control Tests begin on Tuesday 25 May (see timetable on following page).. With that schedule is also the reinforcement lesson dates. These are on a Friday from 13:30 to 14:15. These lessons are for the boys who did not achieve the intended goal in the test. These goals are either set by the boys as individual goals or by the subject teacher. The reinforcement lesson is there to cover the sections the boys found difficult in the test, and correct mistakes. Please note that if your son is informed that he needs to attend on a Friday, it is compulsory.

Please see the D6 for scopes of Control Tests coming up.
